WANTED TO BUY FOR MY PERSONAL COLLECTION

HISTORICAL CHINA WITH AMERICAN POLITICAL, PATRIOTIC, MILITARY, NAVAL OR ANTI-SLAVERY MOTIFS CIRCA 1770-1870, LIVERPOOL, LUSTREWARE, STAFFORDSHIRE, PARIAN, ENAMELS, BENNINGTON, LITHOPHANES, CANARY, STONEWARE, SULFIDES, ETC.
IMMEDIATE CASH ALWAYS AVAILABLE

This catalog is a departure from my usual format, in that it consists only of 150 lots of early historical ceramics from my own personal collection of some 2,000 pieces. My next sale will probably be in August or September and will feature the typical broad range of historical Americana.

A word about condition - while collectors of celluloid buttons, coins or baseball cards may demand "mint" condition, that is not the standard for early ceramics. At least a third of the items in my collection have either damage or restoration - sometimes extensive. A few years ago in the William Guthman sale a rare teapot sold for just over $100,000 and it was broken in half and held together with string! I bid to $90,000 myself, and if I had been the successful bidder my restorer would have been able to make it look virtually perfect. No serious collectors of this early material would pass on a rare piece if it is well restored - and my restorer is VERY GOOD.

Patti hasn't done much with Ebay the past few months because she has been spending most of her time at our home in Australia (no, I'm not happy about it, but both of her daughters live there). She says she will get back on Ebay soon. You can look at her site using the name "ladystark".

She typically offers a wide range of collectibles & historical material, for the most part moderately priced items in the $25 - $500 range. In addition to the major categories offered in our catalogs (political, photography, military, Old West) she will be concentrating on advertising, breweriana, toys, character collectibles, cowboy heroes, worlds fairs, sports, small English ceramics, textiles, police, fire fighting, autographs, and many other interesting items from the mid 19th to mid 20th centuries.

WANTED TO BUY - Any English, American or European ceramics with anti slavery motifs circa 1780-1860. Liverpool, lustreware, Staffordshire, parian, enamels, Paris porcelains, canary, stoneware, sulfides, etc. Anything from the most common to the very rare. John Brown is always of interest. Also other 3-D slavery display items.

ITEM PRICE

1 From the back side of this piece you would think it's a twenty dollar crock good only for planting flowers. When turned around you realize you are viewing one of the best pieces of stoneware in America.

Large 4 gallon cylindrical crock with blue cobalt decoration in a freehand script "Hurrah for Abe Lincoln". Height 11½", diameter 11". Of course there are a few minor nicks, stains and glaze flaws as expected, overall excellent condition. I could write a thousand words of glowing praise in the manner of my friends in Chicago or Dallas, but it can be abbreviated to the famous Latin quotation - Res ipsa loquitur - the thing speaks for itself!

Exhibited in "Of, By and For the People", loan exhibition of early political folk art, Fenimore Art Museum, Cooperstown NY 2008. 39,500.

2 Extremely rare 2½ Chinese export teacup circa 1790-1810, angel with trumpet holding the medal of the Society of the Cincinnati. Decoration in burnt orange. Wear to gilt on top rim, couple tiny chips on table ring at base. 8,500.

3 Spectacular 12" Paris porcelain urn, first quarter 19th century. Hand painted portrait George Washington, winged horse handles, reverse with shield, sword, axe. My good friend, the late Paul Richards, paid $16,500 for this at a Butterfields auction in the late 80's, underbid by the country's top dealer in neoclassical decorative arts. Superb condition - just a little wear to the gilt on the reverse of the base. Note that the white lines above the portrait are just a reflection. 15,000.

4 In 29 years of collecting historical ceramics, I have seen only two pieces with a portrait of Martin Van Buren, and of course I bought them both. 7" Paris porcelain plate with hand painted portrait, his name in tiny letters on reverse. From a set done in the 1840's. One small flake on gilt edge at 7:00, will be invisibly restored prior to shipping (my restorer is very good). 4,250.

5 Rare 2½ child's mug in canary yellow, James Madison, eagle above name. Restoration on back and underside, looks excellent. An identical piece sold for about $8-9,000 at Heritage last year, and that piece was heavily and badly restored. I know this because the buyer sent it to me to have my restorer properly fix it. 6,750.

6 Unique 14" redware loaf dish with freehand decoration in yellow slip "John Adams". A couple minor edge nicks as always seen on this type of ware, basically superb condition. Exhibited in "Of, By and For the People", Fenimore Museum, Cooperstown, NY 2008. 19,500.

7 One of the great rarities in American historical ceramics. 10½ plate "Henry Clay - Star of the West". Imported by James Tams, Philadelphia, and a mate to the relatively common William Henry Harrison "Hero of the Thames" design. I know of only three examples having been sold, and I bought two of them. Black chickweed border makes for great visual appeal. Bit of minor discoloration and two minor chips on back side of rim. 18,000.

8 Excessively rare 9" Liverpool creamware pitcher "James Monroe - President of the United States of America". Reverse with naval battle between the Macedonian and the United States. Illustrated Arman M18/M1 (this example). Invisible restoration to a couple minor nicks and lines, appearance is superb. In 29 years I have seen only two examples of the Monroe transfer, and I bought them both. I sold the other in my catalog about 5 years ago for $39,500. I paid about $22,000 for this in the late 90's. 29,000.

9 Presumably unique 9" spittoon with pair of Confederate flags, a great patriotic statement from early in the war. Excellent. 4,750.

10 Outstanding graphics and color scheme on this 8¼ hand painted French porcelain plate, the blue crown reading "LIBERTY". Design similar to US coinage. Second quarter 19th century, perfect. 1,850.

11 Excessively rare 12" porcelain obelisk memorial to Abraham Lincoln, 1865. Those of you who follow the Americana auctions might recognize this from the sale where I bought it several years ago for about $13,000. Probably unique. 15,500.

12 Large hollow ware pieces of the Texian Campaigne designs are very rare. Superb soup tureen 12½ X 8½ X 10 (height). Black transfer of American officer leading cavalry charge on Mexican position. A couple minor ½" lines on lid, excellent. 6,000.

13 Extremely rare 6¼ parian bust "TILDEN" by Ott & Brewer, Trenton NJ. The only other example I have ever seen was offered by Gary Stradling about 25 years ago, priced at $2,900 to me. 2,450.

14 5½ black marble base with finely detailed 4" parian porcelain foot of Tom Thumb 1847. Engraved gilt brass cap at ankle "Charles S Stratton...Gen Tom Thumb...Born Jan 11 1832 Bridgeport Conn...Aged 15 years...25 inches high...Weighing 15 pounds 1847". 1,750.

15 Colonial slavery was abolished by England in 1834, but not to take effect until Aug 1, 1838. Very rare 10½ plate, Negro family celebrating in front of their shack, a flag proclaiming "LIBERTY" flying above. "Freedom First of August 1838". I remember sending this to my restorer a few years ago, but he did such a good job that I can't tell what was done. 1,750.

16 Very rare 7" creamware plaque George Washington, taken from the 1805 Daniel Eccleston bust. See Arman pg 237 for another example - that one in blue and much heavier. A fine firing crack at his forehead and neck, as made. 1,750.

17 Large 14" porcelain charger 1890's by L S & S, Carlsbad, Austria. Portrait "Chief Josh - San Carlos Apache", wearing 3 gold medals on his vest, trade cloth shirt with yellow polka dots, painted facial decoration. 600.

18 Rare 6" blue/white pitcher, pair of mermaids with very long tails, blowing horns, flanking a memorial to "TRAFALGAR" with cannon, castle, pyramid, flag. Superb restoration at base. Never saw this design before. 750.

19 Rare 9" creamware punch bowl, portrait "Benj Franklin LLD-FRS - Born at Boston in New England 17 Jan 1706". Some very good restoration to a couple of cracks. 2,250.

20 Superb hand painted 9½ porcelain plate, red script reverse "Washington House - Mt Vernon - America". Circa 1830, either Paris or Worcester. 1,700.

21 Rare 4¾ Liverpool tankard "His Excellency General George Washington - Marshall of France & Commander in Chief of all the North American Continental Forces". Arman W11 (this piece). Few minor glaze rubs at edges, bit of minor invisible restoration. A superb item. 4,250.

22 Classic 6" copper lustre pitcher "General Jackson - Hero of New Orleans". Some superb restoration to bottom of base, few minor scratches. 4,750.

23 Rare 8¼ blue feather edge plate with red-orange transfer "Major Genl Brown - Niagara". Superb restoration to crack, appearance is perfect. 1,300.

25 2¼ mug Jenny Lind, purple transfer, blue rim, excellent. 350.

26 7½ octagonal Leeds plate with great folky eagle. Superb restoration to a crack, looks perfect. 800.

27 Large 6" creamware tankard Apotheosis of Washington. Some restoration by rim, appearance excellent. These large tankards are all rare. 2,750.

28 Very rare 11" heavy polychromed plaster bust "Genl Custer". Only the second one I've seen - I sold the other 15-20 years ago. 1,500.

29 14" parian figure "Washington", large & impressive. Only other one I've seen sold for just over $2,000 at a Phil Weiss auction a few months ago. 1,350.

30 Very rare 3¼ Worcester porcelain mug William Pitt the Elder, hero to the American colonists for his stand against the Stamp Act. At sides are armed Minerva and Fame blowing trumpet. Arman P33 (this piece), small restoration at rim, excellent. 2,750.

31 Very rare large 5" polychrome pot lid, complete with base. One of the rarest American lids. Few pinhead nicks and glaze flakes on extreme edge, as always. Taylor Perfumers, Philadelphia. Catalog photo has glare. 3,950.

32 Large 4½ Bristol glass mug with Federal eagle. These are usually seen badly cracked or with other damage. This is superb. 1,250.

33 Very rare 4¼ Chinese export creamer "Arms of Liberty". Portrait John Wilkes "Always Ready in a Good Cause" and Lord Mansfield "Justice Without Pity". A snake rises above Mansfield, and he is flanked by the devil. Wilkes was a champion of personal liberty and the American cause. Ch'ien Lung, circa 1768. Superb invisible restoration to a crack. 3,250.

34 Exceptional 2½ child's mug "Lincoln and the Union". Some restoration on back side by handle. Only example I have ever seen. 2,500.

35 Matching mug (same size - photos taken separately) "Our Union for ever", some restoration by handle. 250.

36 Classic John Brown figurine with two little black girls, in the larger 13¾ size. Couple minor nicks and lines on base, excellent. 2,750.

37 This would be my choice for the "best" Washington - Lafayette plate. 10¼ dark blue Staffordshire "Washington - 4 July 1776 - Welcome Lafayette - The Nations Guest - Aug 1824". By Stevenson & Williams. You won't find a nicer one. 2,750.

38 Presumably unique 66mm (2⅝") uniface basalt medallion of the William Henry Harrison mint medal by Morgan. Julian PR-7 variant. Perhaps a prototype, as the medal was struck only in 76mm. Arman AI-8. Pristine. 900.

39 Rare 4¼ Lincoln vase black/ brown/ blue/white, glazed porcelain with unglazed high relief bust. Reverse with nice eagle. Perfect. 1,200.

40 Leeds eagle in the very desirable 4¼ cup plate size, excellent. 875.

41 Classic 6" Lincoln alphabet plate with color highlights, excellent. Every time I have offered one of these I've had multiple orders. 1,850.

42 Previously unseen 3" glass paperweight, pedestal form base with red/ white/ blue/ green/yellow swirled colors. At center is a high relief sulphide of the Vivier medal (Baker 131-132). 1,350.

43 Extremely rare large bust Washington with fine polychrome details, separate variegated marbleized base. Overall 11½. I have never seen another. Circa 1810 - 1820. 2,350.

44 Rare chalk bust plaque James Lawrence, US Navy, War of 1812. One piece cast plaster 5¼ X 6½, extremely high relief bust, name impressed to either side and painted below. Cover glass inset in the plaster frame. From front it looks fine, but from the rear you can see cracks in the plaster, repaired many years ago. I've never seen another. 2,650.

45 5" miniature Staffordshire figurine "Uncle Tom", his hands in chains. 375.

46 This piece should find a ready home considering the current popularity of bankers. 3¼ mug with man locked in stocks " A Wild Cat Banker Secured in Public Stocks". Couple little glaze flakes on handle. 225.

47 Very rare 15" Chinese export platter with gilt monogram DWMC for DeWitt and Maria Clinton. Mayor of NYC, Governor of NY, Presidential candidate, married to Maria Franklin in 1796. Landscape scene with figures of eight Taoist Immortals around border. Ch'ien Lung circa 1765, monogram added when the service was ordered around the time of their wedding. See Collecting Chinese Export Porcelain by Elinor Gordon for additional info and photos. Excellent. 6,500.

48 One of the best pieces of parian I have ever seen. Large 15½ figurine George Washington and Nathan Hale, passing a wreath from their right hands, Hale holding a document in his left. No markings, minor repair to corner of base - you wouldn't see it if I didn't tell you. Spectacular piece of the utmost rarity! 8,750.

49 Very rare 18th century 10" creamware plate, seal of Virginia surrounded by 13 linked states. "Virginia - Sic Semper Tyrannis". An outstanding rarity that will no doubt find a new home in the Old Dominion. Arman V2 (this piece). 5,500.

50 Rare large 6½ War of 1812 pitcher. The Wasp Boarding the Frolic. The Constitution's Escape from the British Squadron after a Chase of sixty hours. Arman W65 and C20 (not this piece). Minor small repair on rim at top of handle, excellent. The Constitution's Escape is a scarce and desirable transfer. 3,250.

51 Superb 7½ Lafayette plate with deep red brown transfer and polychrome embossed border. "He was born at Auvergne in France 1757, joined the American struggle in 1777..." Arman L6 (this piece), by Andrew Stevenson, beautiful condition. 2,950.

52 Rare 6½ Paris porcelain plate "Maj Gen Winfield Scott of the United States Army", from the War of 1812. Arman AIII 26-B (this example). Some light wear/rubbing. While the Scott plates and mugs from the Civil War are fairly common, these early ones are rare. 3,250.

53 Rare anti slavery hanging plaque. 5" wood frame encloses wax figure of kneeling slave in chains. Glass panel with reverse painted decoration and slogan "Am I Not A Man and a Brother". Wavy design behind him is either mountains or a faint waterstain - I can't decide even with a magnifier. Generally excellent but for chipping to gesso on outer rim of frame. 1,250.

54 Exceptional large 11½ creamware punch bowl. The Capital Albany, Justice with scales flanked by portraits of Kent and Coke. Around inner rim are portraits Clinton, Jefferson, Lafayette, Washington, like those used in the very rare medallion series of dark blue Staffordshire. The Rev Theobald Mathew was an Irish temperance preacher who came to the US in 1849. Superb condition. Much rarer than the similar pieces for Jackson and Harrison, but of course worth much less. 950.

56 6" porcelain sugar bowl, four views of kneeling slave in chains. Perfect. 1,750.

57 Superb 7" Liverpool jug, the Death of General James Wolfe at Quebec in 1759 (French and Indian War). Arman D2 (this example), minor restoration, appearance is perfect. 3,950.

59 Large 6½ War of 1812 creamware pitcher. Captain (Jacob) Jones of the Macedonian. Reverse Zebulon Pike "Be always ready to die for your country". Superb condition (catalog photo has some reflection). From the 1978 Sussell sale. 2,750.

60 Previously unrecorded 4¾ Lambeth type stoneware bottle with high relief figures of the actor Dan Rice in his role as Jim Crow. 450.

68 Wonderful 4⅝ toddy plate Lafayette with embossed leaf border. Superb restoration to crack - appears perfect. 750.

69 Unique 3½ carved stone inkwell, barrel incised "Hard Cider", 1840 Harrison campaign. Edge chipping as you would expect. You will never see another. 2,250.

70 Charming 3½ creamware mug with polychromed Map of North America - Map of England. Signed on base WP 1797. Couple chips on rim and table ring. Arman M9 (this piece). Probably unique. 2,750.

71 Rare 10½ green Fitzhugh platter, Chinese export circa 1790 - 1810. Eagle with banner E Pluribus Unum and gilt monogram AT or AF. 4,250.

98 8½ pink lustre plate "General Jackson - Hero of New Orleans". Excellent 1,375.

99 Large 13" washbowl and 12" pitcher titled "Webster Vase". This little known pattern depicts a large urn given to Daniel Webster. 107 Very rare Chinese export cup & saucer with view of Staten Island, 1790's. I bought this from Elinor Gordon 20 years ago just because I liked it - the subject matter never fit in my collection. Still has her distinctive label on underside. Excellent. 750.

108 Superb large 8" porcelain pitcher with water fountains, "Temperance Association" below spout. While some would call this Tucker and price it in the thousands, it really isn't. It is probably a Haviland or other French blank which would have been decorated in the US circa 1840's. The decoration and colors are superb. Beautiful condition - one of the best pieces of temperance china I have seen. 1,000.

109 Extremely rare gilt decorated 3" porcelain mug "Rough and Ready". I have never seen another, possibly unique, perfect. 1,950.

112 Wonderful small Liverpool jug only 6½ tall, George Washington, Ben Franklin, Map of the United States. Reverse ship with American flag. Minor bit of excellent restoration by the handle. Terrific crisp transfers. I have always thought these small undersized jugs are really charming. 2,250.

114 3" mug Major General George Meade, excellent. 375.

115 7" purple plate, eagle, flags, shield, liberty caps. Eagle on shield border. No doubt rare, circa 1830's - 40's, excellent. 400.

116 10½ Texian Campaign plate, red, excellent. 350.

117 Unusual 4¾ pottery goblet, "Liberty" in gold below portrait identical to Coronet head coinage. Reverse with gold eagle in relief above shield. 1840's. Some wear to gilt, excellent. 425.

118 2½ mug in mulberry color, eagle, shield, etc. Excellent. 300.

119 5" alphabet plate Commodore Andrew Hull Foote, in charge of naval operations on the upper Mississippi. Excellent restoration to a small crack. 225.

120 Large 3½ mug Generals Scott and Halleck, excellent. These mugs are much rarer than the smaller single portrait versions. 550.

121 Scarce 10" covered vegetable dish, blue spatter with eagle and shield. While the plates are common, these large hollow ware pieces are quite scarce. 1,100.

122 Nice 10½ Liverpool jug Washington in Glory, reverse ship MARY with American flag. Federal eagle and owners name Robert Patterson under spout. Restoration to a couple of cracks, appearance is excellent. 1,750.

123 Very large 11" jug, uniformed soldier with girlfriend, poem about her joining him and living in barracks. Reverse three 18th century soldiers. Absolutely superb restoration to a couple of cracks - looks perfect. 1,000.

124 Nice 2½ mug, Washington the Patriot of America. Paul Richards Collection label. 450.

125 10" marble encrier (inkwell desk set) with copper hinged lid inkwells and biscuit porcelain bust Ben Franklin. Circa 1830's - 50's, excellent. I was with Paul Richards when he bought this from the Woldman brothers for over $2,000. Richards Collection label. 975.

126 I bought this about 25 years ago, just because I liked it. Very rare 11" teapot in form of monkey with Napoleon hat. Spout is long snake coming from between monkeys legs. Details of snake include eyes and serrated teeth! Mottled Whieldon glaze with brown/ gray/ green. Body excellent, hat restored. 1,250.

127 8½ Liverpool jug, allegorical scene three women Liberty, Justice & Plenty "United We Stand - Divided We Fall". Reverse terrific eagle with 16 linked states and 16 stars. Some excellent restoration at spout and rim. See Arman S13 (this example) and U11. 1,950.

128 Miniature 8" high domed coffee pot with American ships, double strap handle. Arman S72A. Excellent restoration to tip of spout and edge of base, excellent. 1,250.

129 Extremely rare gold leafed glass plaque British statesman Edmund Burke. His speeches American Taxation (1774) and Conciliation with America (1775) endeared him to the colonists. He was also an ardent abolitionist. Very finely detailed copper wheel cut portrait. Purchased at Christies 25 years ago with a matching plaque of John Adams. 750.

130 Very rare 4½ drabware jasper plaque, relief figure Liberty with liberty cap on pole. Signed Enoch Wood, circa 1790. Excellent. 1,000.

131 6" (7" to handle) relief molded green drab glaze stoneware pitcher by Ridgway & Abington 1853. Detailed scene of slave auction "By Auction this Day a Prime Lot of Healthy Negroes". Reverse Eliza pursued across ice by Simon Legree. Handle is slave with hands clasped in prayer. Pristine. 1,250.

132 3½ porcelain mug "Health to the Sick - Honor to the Brave - Success attend true Love - And freedom to the Slave". 950.

133 Previously unseen 9½ lidded razor or toothbrush holder, four transfers of Indian with lance and long eagle feather headdress. "INDIAN CHIEF HOTEL". By T J & J Mayer, Longport, 1843-1855. Very rare. One teensy unseen chip under lid, few tiny chips on inside lid rest. 300.

136 8" Wedgwood "To the Men of Boston who Died for their Country...Kept the Union Whole, Destroyed Slavery, Maintained the Constitution...Their Example May Speak to Future Generations". 150.

137 9" high relief molded pitcher "Ellsworth - Brownell - J W Jackson the Traitor". Brownell kills Jackson as Ellsworth falls mortally wounded. Excellent restoration to short line above eagle on reverse. I've seen these priced as high as $3,500, which is ridiculous. 900.

138 2½ porcelain whistle inscribed "Genl Butler" in worn gilt on underside. Good likeness of him, seated on cannon. 350.

139 9" extremely high relief marble plaque Lafayette. Couple minor chips on back. Excellent. 500.
